

The unexpected loss of my husband Jim in 2024 has been difficult and life changing. I am stepping down from City Council effective immediately as I step forward in this new life and refocus my career.

Serving as representative of Wilsonville citizens has been a rewarding experience. I am proud of the accomplishments during my 3 years on Council. More than anything, I had the privilege to serve on Council as we designed and implemented a safe overnight camping area for unhoused individuals and families in need. I applaud the exceptional leadership and collaboration of our 2023 Council, City Manager Bryan Cosgrove, city staff, and a special thanks to former Mayor Julie Fitzgerald and City Attorney Amanda Guile-Hinman for the leadership and inspiration for all of us to reach higher as we sought a compassionate solution. Serving alongside each of them was an honor.
