

Japanese culture at the library

In conjunction with the “One Book, One Coast” collaboration reading They Called Us Enemy by George Takei, we are celebrating Japanese culture at the library in May with a variety of programs.

Learn about the personal experience of the Japanese internment camps at a free screening of the film *Farewell to Manzanar, based on the memoir by Jeanne Wakatsuki, on Friday, May 15, 3-5pm.

Experience the beauty and mindfulness of the traditional Japanese Tea Ceremony at a live demonstration on Thursday, May 21, 6-7:30pm.

Local ensemble Oregon Koto-Kai performs traditional and modern musical pieces on the Japanese koto, a 13-stringed Japanese zither, on Saturday, May 30, 2-3pm.

An author talk with George Takei will be livestreamed on Sunday, May 31, from 2-3pm. Watch online or at the library.
