

A Baby Boy and a Big Boy

The baby crawled too fast and the big boy lost the baby! The baby was trying to crawl to Oaks Park but it went the wrong way and took the wrong turn and ended up on a mountain. The baby climbed on the mountain and then the big boy went into the forest to look for the baby, but the baby wasn't in the forest. The baby was on the mountain. There was a talking house in the forest that said, " Don't come past me!" But, the big boy passed the house through a little crack. The house did not know there was a little crack. The big boy kept looking for the baby. He didn't find the baby in the forest. The house said to the big boy, "Look on the Mountain." The big boy looked for the crack again but couldn't find it. He did find a gate but didn't know how to open it. He went the other way. He finally made it to the mountain but did not find the baby. The baby was still trying to get to Oaks Park. He is a fast crawler! The baby crawled so fast, his toy monster truck fell out of his pocket on the mountain. The big boy saw the monster truck on the mountain and knew he was going the right way. Then he saw the baby's bottle that also fell out of the baby's pocket. The big boy knew he was going the right way. The baby was crawling so fast he kept dropping things from all his pockets. He has two pockets on his shirt and four more pockets on his shorts. He dropped his toy hammer that was grey. The big boy found the hammer and picked it up. He picked up all the stuff the baby dropped so he could give it back to the baby. The big boy knew he was close to the baby because he found all his things.

The baby finally made it to Oaks Park. He went on rides by himself and paid with the money his brother gave him. The money was in a zipper pocket, so it did not fall out. It was zipped up. The big boy followed the trail of toys and made it to Oaks Park too, but the baby had already done all the rides and left. The baby crawled to a dark tunnel and was scared that bears were in the tunnel. He crawled extra fast to get out! There were no bears. When the big boy made it to the tunnel the baby was gone. The big boy knew he would find the baby but he was worried it was taking so long. Then the big boy figured out there was a picnic and he went to the picnic. The baby got to the picnic first. The whole family was at the picnic. When the big boy saw the baby at the picnic he said, "I found you, baby!" and gave all the toys back to the baby. Then the big boy ate food and was so happy he had found his baby.

The End
